

Π Π ρ

The image shows three red Greek letters (Π, Π, ρ) arranged horizontally. Below each letter is a large, bold, black calligraphic stroke. The first stroke is a thick, curved line that starts with a small hook on the left and ends with a sharp point on the right. The second stroke is a thick, curved line that starts with a small hook on the left and ends with a sharp point on the right. The third stroke is a thick, curved line that starts with a small hook on the left and ends with a sharp point on the right.